5 Legal basis and purposes

5.1 LSH

Your personal data is processed based on the following legal basis:

Art. 6 (1) b) GDPR (performance of contract, implementation of pre-contractual measures)

LSH processes your personal data in order to fulfil contracts that you have entered into with LSH or to carry out pre-contractual measures. You may provide LSH with your personal data if

- you have questions about LSH services and offers
- you want to complain about a LSH service

- you want to receive information about your application to LSH or your application status

Your data may be shared internally to process your request.

The amount and category of data processed depends on what you provide to LSH. In order to process your request, it may be necessary for LSH to request further data from you. In this event, LSH will ask you for the additional data and information required to process your request. The following data is generally processed:

- First name
- Surname
- Title / Sex
- Personal information that you send us as part of your request / message

Art. 6 (1) f) GDPR (to safeguard legitimate interests)

LSH also processes your personal data in order to safeguard its legitimate interests. The purpose of this processing is as follows:

- To evaluate analyses and statistics relating to user behaviour on the Facebook page
- To optimise the Facebook page in terms of its user-friendliness and attractiveness, and to introduce user-friendly marketing measures
- Other communication and interactions initiated by Facebook users

5.2 Facebook

You can find information on the legal basis for the use of your personal data by Facebook at:

- Facebook Data Policy (section “What is our legal basis for using data?”)
<https://de-de.facebook.com/about/privacy/update>
- Detailed information on the legal bases

6 Data erasure and retention period

Your personal data is deleted from LSH's internal systems as soon as it is no longer required for the purposes stated. However, LSH must sometimes continue to store your data until the end of the retention periods and deadlines set by the legislator or supervisory authorities, which may be derived from the German Commercial Code, the Tax Code or the Money Laundering Act. These are generally six to ten years. LSH may also retain your data until the statutory limitation periods have expired, if this is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. After that, the relevant data is routinely erased.

For information about Facebook's data erasure and retention periods, please see:

<https://www.facebook.com/about/privacy/update> (section “Data retention, account deactivation and deletion”)

7 Your rights

You can have the following rights under Chapter 3 of the GDPR:

- Right to information, Art. 15 GDPR
- Right to rectification, Art. 16 GDPR
- Right to erasure (“Right to be forgotten”), Art. 17 GDPR
- Right to restrict processing, Art. 18 GDPR
- Right to data portability, Art. 20 GDPR
- Right to object, Art. 21 GDPR
